INDIA MEETS AFRICA TO COMPETE, COLLABORATE AND CO-CREATE THE FUTURE

INDIAFRICA: A Shared Future is a unique approach to foster a People-to-People (P2P) understanding with Africa by inviting creative exchanges between young Africans and Indians through a multidisciplinary contest series and a Young Visionaries fellowship program. This initiative aims to create a dynamic platform for students and professionals across India and Africa to collaborate through competition, innovation and entrepreneurship. The contest series, in the areas of Business Plans, Essay Writing, Photography and Poster Design, will help create a platform for talented young Indians and Africans to exchange ideas about emergent realities, successes and challenges, and explore future collaborations in business, design and culture. The Young Visionaries fellowship programme, seeks to identify promising young entrepreneurs in India & Africa and offer them opportunities for growth and collaboration. INDIAFRICA aims to forge meaningful bonds between youth from both geographies; inspire new possibilities of collaboration and encourage recognition of diverse nations as interdependent creative problem solvers with unique and invaluable resources and talents.

My idea of India

... As partnerships go, India is the unavoidable inspiration Africa in general & E. Africa in particular must seek... WHY? India is connected historically to E. Africa... look at the Railway line look at the university of NAIROBI.
look at the monsoon winds in the Indian Ocean.
India itself is a very powerful expression of Native memory & contemporary thought.... The very bases for SOCIAL TRANSFORMATION & GROWTH.

INDIAFRICA Interaction with African MPs and Journalists in Delhi

A SHARED VISION; A SHARED FUTURE

A pan-African delegation comprising of 28 young members of parliament from 14 countries and 17 journalists who are on a visit to India attended the INDIAFRICA luncheon session hosted by the Ministry of External Affairs at the Taj Mahal Hotel on 18 March, 2012.

MPs from Kenya, Ghana, Togo, and Mauritius shared their views. "Africa is a continent of the future. Africa has been sitting on potential; it is time to unleash the reality," said a delegate from Kenya, "The young people of Africa will make the right vision for society and all of us."

INDIAFRICA Interaction with African MPs and Journalists in Delhi

"If you want to go fast, go alone. If you want to go far, go together", the delegate from Ghana, reminded everyone of the old African proverb; while drawing parallels to the world's first-of-its-kind people to people engagement program.

Members of the delegation have promised to widen the engagement in every town and village in their respective countries by bringing more and more schools, universities and colleges on board.

Mood Indigo

TAKING INDIAFRICA TO ASIA'S LARGEST STUDENT FESTIVAL

INDIAFRICA: A SHARED FUTURE partnered with IIT-Bombay's annual cultural festival 'Mood Indigo'. Started in 1971 by a bunch of enthusiastic IITians, Mood Indigo has now snowballed to become the largest festival of its kind in Asia. The festival has always set trends amongst all the college festivals of the country, standing strong on its core values & principles.

This year, Mood Indigo attracted over 80,000 students from more than 600 colleges all over the country. INDIAFRICA: A SHARED FUTURE introduced the visiting students to the second edition of its contests for students from across India and Africa. In addition to promoting the contest, INDIAFRICA also leveraged the platform to introduce the students to the culture and costumes of Africa. Special photography sessions in African costumes were arranged for the students. The festival also featured a musical performance by "Ganga Vibes", a leading youth band from Morocco on the 23rd of December.

INDIAFRICA FOCUS GROUP DISCUSSION

Indialogues played host to 13 students on Saturday 22nd December 2012, at their Gurgaon office. It offered a platform to African students studying in Delhi, both in the North and South campuses of Delhi University. The group had representatives from various age groups starting from undergraduate students to those pursuing PhD programmes and came from different parts of Africa namely- Nigeria, Kenya, Democratic Republic of Congo, Ghana and Mauritius.

After a brief introduction of all the participants and an overview about their stay and experience in India, the discussions commenced. The focus was on evolving ways to enhance collaboration and cooperation between India and Africa. Ms Seema Kundra and Mr. Ashwani Duggal moderated the focus group interactions. The students also used the opportunity to share their happy and not-so-happy experiences in India. They rightly asserted that it was imperative to make the students here, as well as Indian students in Africa, feel good, welcomed and appreciated as natural ambassadors of their diverse cultures.
